LEADERSHIP

Before they led, they followed.

Choosing great leaders to follow is how we learn to lead.

THE CALL

It began with an invitation.

> He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."
>
> Matthew 4:19

> At once they left their nets and followed him.
>
> Matthew 4:20

WHERE IT STARTS

Peter and Andrew were not leaders yet.

They were fishermen, working their nets by the Sea of Galilee.

> Their first step toward leading was choosing whom to follow.

HUMILITY FIRST

Following takes humility.

To follow someone well, you have to admit that they see the way more clearly than you do right now.

> That same humility is the first thing a leader needs.

THE MODEL

Great leaders show you the work they expect.

> If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do.
>
> John 13:14–15

THE SENDING

The followers became the leaders.

The same men who left their nets were later sent out to lead others.

> Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations,
>
> Matthew 28:19

WITH REVERENCE

I have always chosen whom to follow with reverence.

The apostles did not begin as leaders. They began by leaving their nets for someone worth following, and everything they later became grew out of that choice.

> Before you decide who you want to become, look closely at whom you are following.

CHOOSE WELL

Choose carefully whom you follow.

You will lead the way they taught you.
